

Webster Groves Historical Society Board Election Candidates

Paula Andrew

Paula is a Webster Groves Realtor who loves to share St. Louis history with newcomers. She is a Hawken House docent and has worked at the Christmas Market and the Spirited Holiday Past tours.

Malon Argint

Malon is a Webster Groves High School graduate and retired special education teacher. She is a lover of historic properties and has recently started working to beautify the Hawken House grounds.

Terrell Carter

Terrell is a retired St. Louis Police Officer and Pastor of Webster Groves Baptist Church. He has a unique perspective to address issues of race relations in the church and the community.

Shawn Greene

Shawn is a life-long resident of Webster Groves who has volunteered for the Historical Society since 2012. Among other things, he spearheaded the Hawken House Concert Series and digitization projects.

Donia Hunter

Donia has a decades-long history with the Society that has covered numerous roles, including docent, newsletter editor, president, Hawken House manager, and curator of special exhibits.

Damon Patterson

Damon is a graduate of Webster Groves High School who served in the Marine Corps before college. Working at the Mid-County YMCA allows him to serve as mentor and role model for North Webster youth.

Chris Piazza

Chris has a masters degree in finance from St. Louis University, with years of experience with not-for-profit entities, having served on several different boards in Missouri and the St. Louis region.

Lee Scherzer

Lee is a Realtor and a 60-year Webster resident who is active with the Webster Groves Lions. A past-volunteer with Clark School Scouts and PTO, he has worked with Society special events since 2016.

Charles Schoenherr

Charles has been a Webster Groves resident and business owner for thirty years. He volunteered with the Hawken House for many years and would like to bring his fund-raising experience to the Society.

Jake Tobey

Jake is an Iraq veteran who is completing a degree in history at Webster U. and wants to work with the archives. He and his fiancée, a third-generation Webster Groves resident, live in Shrewsbury.
